LOCAL NOTES.

Vinita Fair next week.

—Come to the fair and bring all the family.

—Go to Benton's for a good square meal.

—The railroad company is preparing to erect a depot at Afton.

—"Lost in London," the 24th and 25th at Halsey's opera house.

—Reserved seats for "Lost in London" on sale at Shanahan's drugstore.

—The only ladies at the show Tuesday night were those upon the stage.

—Ten head of horses were stolen recently from E. W. Johnson, of Chouteau.

—Census Taker Frank Cutch has quit and gone to Texas to attend a law suit.

—Mr. Beatty's house is being moved up into the Galloway college quarter of town.

—A contract has been made and the balloon ascension at the fair is a certainty.

—Vociferous academy will be in session every day during the fair until one o'clock.

—The Raymond Barrett case has been settled, to the apparent satisfaction of both parties.

—Claude Washburn talks of moving his mill to Afton and erecting a roller mill at that place.

—The Vinita roller mill is making between five and six thousand pounds of flour daily and the quality is superb.

—Ladies call and see Mrs. Chouteau's new supply of fall millinery: Wilson street, south of Skinner, Ratcliff & Co.'s.

—New scenery and new songs with full orchestra accompaniment in "Lost in London," September 24th and 25th.

—An educational center is what Vinita is going to be; schools and churches broken a good class of people.

—The rain of last Friday afternoon would have delighted the heart of old Noah or any other of the wet weather prophets.

—When you come to the fair don't forget to call at the postoffice and see Wright's new stock of watches, clocks and jewelry.

—It is reported that a witness swore last week in the Coowescoowee circuit court that his time was worth from $50 to $200 a day.

—"Lost in London," September 24th and 25th. Band concert every evening in front of the opera house before the performance begins.

—Worcester academy starts out with more pupils than at any other fall term in several years, if not in the history of the school.

—J. H. Vanhook, living near Garthage, came in Monday morning on the train for a chestnut-colored mare stolen last Friday night.

—On the 24th and 25th will be presented the great musical drama, "Lost in London." This is a splendid play and should be well patronized.

—John Taylor, assistant solicitor, has just been to Chouteau, Pryor Creek, Afton and Big Cabin looking after the hay shipping trade.

—N. B. Simpson has bought the Kentucky house and embarked in the hotel business. "Pap" will keep a good house no doubt of that.

—A young man named Wm. Ruckley, from Pope county, Ark., was drowned in the Arkansas near O. P. Brower's, this nation, a short time ago.

—C. W. Easley, president of the Citizens' bank at Henrietta, Texas, writes that he will put $10,000 into a bank in Vinita and take charge of it if desired.

—The old sign, "Hotel Delbythe," will be seen up Main street south of Frisco stock yards, where accommodations will be given the public by Mrs. Blythe.

—A train of twenty-one cars of barbed wire was taken from Muskogee to Benton one day last week in six hours and thirty minutes, nearly passenger train time.

—The contractors have gone to work upon Mr. Patton's building in earnest and state that if the weather does not interfere they will have it completed in forty-five days.

—The estimate of the census people is that Coowescoowee contains two non-citizens to one citizen and that the population of the district will be between 15,000 and 20,000.

—Apparently the easiest thing in the world for Jim Tipton to do is to beat Vinita in a law suit. The need for amending the town laws of the Cherokee nation grows more apparent.

—The Presbyterian synod meets in this city next month. Arrangements must be made for the entertainment of all visitors; we must show that Vinita appreciates courtesies of this character.

—The final round-up of the season, in the western part of the country, will be held on the 25th. Those interested will meet at Vinita's lake upon that day and one wagon will go up the Arkansas and one up Verdigris.

—Maj. W. B. Hendrix, on A. G. Gray's place, is rushing things in the farming line. He has one hundred acres ready for fall wheat and the seed cleaned to sow it with and has in the neighborhood of one hundred tons of hay put up.

—John Ballew swore in circuit court last week that for three years he used the seal and performed the functions of a deputy clerk but had never in fact been appointed to such position. This may open the door for a great deal of litigation.

—The Hemming bank project has been abandoned, but there are several other gentlemen anxious to take the charter and go ahead and organize as long as Vinita is willing to take $25,000 to $40,000 of stock and need not fear but a bank will be established.

—At the Coowescoowee stray sale last week two hogs were put up and sold, one running at "Joseph Hunt's," for $3.00 to Joe Hunt; the other "at Vinita," for $1.00, to Lucien Buffington. It has since developed that it was the same hog and probably belonged to Sam Thompson.

—Chicken legs, good plump ones, bone of the scrawny, skinny kind, was Judge Gore's breakfast order yesterday morning. The boys intimates that the gentlemen had been out to the show the night before and witnessed the performance by the ladies with abbreviated skirts.

—The rain of last Friday afternoon would have delighted the heart of old Noah or any other of the wet weather prophets.

—When you come to the fair don't forget to call at the postoffice and see Wright's new stock of watches, clocks and jewelry.
